

I wish to express my opposition to the FCC's current efforts to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law, being challenged by the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA). A commercial firm should not be permitted to use a service that I pay for to intrude on my family's time and privacy.